- 8.3 The Seller undertakes to provide to the Buyer all such assistance as shall be reasonably requested to enable the Buyer to pursue any claim against carriers or

9 Title to Goods.

- 9.1 The Seller and the Buyer expressly agree that until the Seller has been paid in full for the Goods supplied :
  - (A) The Goods remain the property of the Seller although the risk therein passes to the Buyer at the point where delivery is made.
  - (B) The Seller may recover those Goods at any time from the Buyer in his possession if the Seller judges that the amount outstanding from the Buyer on the general statement of account between the Seller and the Buyer or any group company of the Buyer is in excess of the credit limit that the Seller is willing to accord the Buyer; and for that purpose the Sellers servants and agents may enter upon any land or building on which the Goods are situated.
  - (C) If the buyer incorporates such Goods into other products with the addition of his goods or those of others or uses such Goods as materials for other products with or without such addition then the property in those other Goods is upon such incorporation 'ipso facto' transferred to the Seller and the Buyer as bailee of them for the Seller will store the same for the Seller in a proper manner without charge to the Seller.
  - (D) The Buyer has the right to dispose of the Goods or such other products in the course of his business for the account of the Seller and to pass good title to the Goods his customer being a 'bona fide' purchaser for value without notice of the Sellers rights.
  - (E) In the event of such disposal the Buyer has the fiduciary duty to the Seller to account to the Seller for the proceeds but may retain therefrom an excess of such proceeds over the amount outstanding and due to the Seller and the Seller has the additional right to recover the Buyers price from the Buyers customer to the extent unpaid; if the Seller avails itself of this right it will account to the buyer for any excess less any expenses incurred by effecting recovery.

10 Other Liabilities.

- 10.1 Any Goods or materials included in this contract which are not manufactured by the Seller are sold with the benefit of such warranties as the manufacturer gives the Seller and which the Seller can enforce without incurring legal expenses but the seller does not in any way guarantee such materials or Goods.
- 10.2 The Seller warrants that all goods supplied which are manufactured by the Seller are free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of six months from the date of the Sellers invoice but unless expressly stated in writing the Sellers liability under the warranty shall be limited to making good without charge or repair or (at the Sellers discretion) replacement. Defective Goods must be returned to the Seller carriage paid together with a written report within 30 days of such defect becoming apparent. If in the opinion of the Seller the Goods are defective in materials or workmanship then the Seller will refund the Buyer the carriage
- 10.3 The warranty contained in paragraph(s) above of this contract of conditions of sale is given in lieu of and shall be deemed to exclude all other warranties of conditions whether express or implied and whether arising by common law statute or otherwise
